How to Save Money at Disney World

#10 Be Flexible with Your Dates

You may be thinking about a summer vacation, but if you can visit in later summer than early summer, you could save money with a better discount package. Since early summer is more popular than later summer, you could find a discount package at a better price. If you are flexible with your dates, you have a much better chance of getting the best discount packages to Disney World.

#9 Visit During Value or Regular Season

The best times of year for discount packages Disney World are during Value and Regular Seasons. You will save the most money and beat the crowds at the Disney Theme Parks. One of my favorite tips is over the popular holiday season in December. If you adjust your vacation dates by 1-2 days before Christmas, you can often save $100-1000 on your vacation.

#8 Visit During the Weekday

Disney Resorts increase in price over the weekends, so if you are visiting for 3-4 nights, try to plan your dates during the weekday to save money.

#7 Stay at a Disney Resort

There are thousands of hotel options in Orlando. However, when you add up all of the "extras" with a Disney World Package, it is amazing how much you can save on your vacation. When you count discount packages to Disney World, Magical Express, complimentary transportation around Disney World, and the free parking; staying at a Disney Resort will save you money.

If you have an upcoming conference at Disney World, go ahead and plan a family vacation. Attending a conference allows you extra discounts and perks that the general public cannot take advantage of including 1/2 day tickets and meal vouchers. If you have a conference at Disney World, consider making it a whole family event.
